Emotional Support Providing for All of Your Needs

Fertility issues can be hard. We are pleased to offer professional and peer support groups throughout the state to support you in all possible ways.

One-on-One With Kim Crone, Ph.D.

Dr. Crone is a psychologist who has specialized in counseling and education for over 15 years. She sees patients at CARS or at her office in Canton, CT where she provides cognitive behavioral counseling to help manage and understand the emotional aspects of infertility treatment. She provides supportive counseling and offers instruction in mind-body techniques to promote effective coping with the stress of treatment. She also conducts psychoeducational consultations with patients considering third-party reproduction, including donor sperm, donor egg and/or the use of a gestational carrier. Dr. Crone's goal is to help patients feel stronger, take back control, and have continued energy to pursue treatments.

Peer Support Groups

Live Groups

Given the Covid-19 pandemic, we have been unable to hold our RESOLVE of New England peer support groups or Shoreline support group*. Instead, we are pleased to offer free, Center for Advanced Reproductive Services [the Center] sponsored virtual groups via Zoom Meeting.

These will be held every Thursday at noon or 7pm (alternating weekly) and continue July through September.

*Our Branford in person support groups are currently on hold. Stay tuned.

Resolve of New England Virtual Groups

Also, please look out for posts on our Facebook page from RESOLVE of New England to join one of their virtual peer support groups or visit their web site for more information:

Center Virtual Groups

Our support groups meet weekly and pre-registration is required using the link below. Once your registration is approved, a participation link will be shared. Kindly register at least 12 hours in advance to ensure that your registration is received.

These groups will be managed and facilitated by Ami Chokshi, Certified Health coach. Ami is an experienced live group facilitator, overseeing the RESOLVE of New England live peer support groups at the Center for many years. She is also a former fertility patient.
